KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. D. Puddester, BA, BMedSc, MD,
Masters of Education

Dr. Puddester is an Associate Professor of Medicine at uOttawa where he is Director of Canada's first Faculty of Wellness Program. His clinical appointment is with the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario where he is the Medical Director of the Behavioral Neurosciences and Consultation-Liaison Team.

In addition to working with children, youth and families, Dr. Puddester supports medical students and physicians, both clinically and educationally, in Ottawa and across Canada. His own educational path has led him from Memorial University of Newfoundland, to McMaster University and uOttawa. With his vast experience and expertise, Dr. Puddester brings keen insight to today's youth and contemporary teen culture. An engaging and personable speaker, Dr. Puddester is in high demand for a variety of audiences

Dr. Moira McQueen
LL.B., M. Div., Ph.D.

Dr. Moira McQueen graduated in law from the University of Glasgow, Scotland, practicing in family law and juvenile court. She earned her Master of Divinity and PhD. in moral theology from the University of St. Michael's College and the Toronto School of Theology. She has been teaching moral theology at the Faculty of Theology since 1994, and has written extensively in bioethics as well as other areas. In 2004, Moira was appointed Director of the Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute.

A much sought after speaker, Moira speaks a language and conveys an understanding of complex moral issues that engages and is accessible to everyday Catholics. Her credibility comes from both her extensive academic background and lived experience in family life.
