

Let the Children Come to Me

Guidebook by Maria da Conceicao Ferreira Pinto, SSD

Illustrations by Delfina Repetto, FSP

Here is a creative, hands-on way to introduce young children to Jesus. Featuring over 100 different laminated figures and five background panels, the Let the Children Come to Me poster set lets you visually recreate thirty-two different Gospel scenes right in your own classroom without mess and stress.

Reusable mounting putty makes it possible to rearrange the removable figures over and over again, ensuring learning fun for your students for years to come. The guidebook provides accompanying lesson outlines for each scene in the life of Jesus with

- simple figure arrangement suggestions
- catechetical explanations and applications
- a closing prayer
- activities

The interactive experience that is Let the Children Come to Me communicates to children the best and joyful news we have: Jesus is alive and always with us!

CARFLEO has made a special arrangement with Joseph's Inspirational Services to sell the kit for C$30.00 to CARFLEO members. Go to the store at 2721 Markham Rd, Scarborough, ON or phone Joseph at 416 291-1772

Web Site Support for Religious Education Courses

CARFLEO have created a section on their websites devoted to the teaching of the National Office of Religious Education's Born of the Spirit and We Are Strong Together series. For each Grade level a page has been set aside to give unit by unit web links.

Each link is accompanied by a brief description of how that link can help in the teaching of that particular unit. This ongoing project is part of the requirements of the OECTA and OCSTA Additional Qualifications Courses in Religious Education. Go to our website at www.carfleo.org to see this new addition to the site.
